THE MEAT CARGO.

We have given our readers the full particulars respecting the first two cargoes of frozen mutton shipped from the Plate to Europe, and sold in Smithfield Market, London, the day after arrival, at 4d. and 4¼d. per lb.

Our London Correspondent, in his very able letter on this subject, says the start has been made, and made well. The mutton arrived home in the very best condition; it sold at a reasonably fair price, considering the heavy arrivals from New Zealand and Australia. The business, spite of the great opposition it meets in England from Australasian interests, looks well and, in his opinion, by a little push on the part of the people of the Plate, will prove a most magnificent success.

We, for our part, frankly confess that the River Plate is such an extraordinary country, and its people such an exceptional community, we look for no push whatever by the people or the Government to help the business; and if its success depends on any effort from here, then the New Zealanders and Australians may take the matter easy, since the only push likely to occur is a rise in the price of 'capones' by the farmers, and a rise in tonnage dues, export tax, etc., by the Government when the business is sufficient to yield it.

Individual enterprise may, of course, with the many advantages the Plate holds, carry the business over all difficulties. Individually, somehow or other, we all make money and all get along out here, but collectively we are nowhere; and that any number of sheepfarmers or estancieros in this or that partido is likely to combine to help the trade, either by giving land or mutton at low rates, is, to our mind, all but a dream at the best.

Our London Correspondent, with his proverbial tact, put the case in a nutshell. We sheepfarmers have the sheep, and they Londoners have the money and the directors. The interests of both classes in the frozen Plate mutton are so great that in all human probability the business will succeed; but if it does, it will succeed in spite of ourselves, in spite of the Government and in spite of the Australians.

Search the world over, and on the face of the habitable globe there is not to be found a more independent class of ucodles than our River Plate estancieros and sheepfarmers. There is not an industry in the country that owes them a brass farthing. They are rich and wealthy, because the growth of the country has made them so. Don't talk to us of our grand humiliating staple export—wool. The very name is an impeachment to the intelligence or enterprise of the River Plate sheepfarmers. Wool is shipped as shoddy, as dirty and as slovenly from the Plate to-day as it was fifty years ago, when old Peter Sheridan drank his whiskey punch in the club and Don Juan Hannah eat his porridge in Ranchos.

We have improved our breed of sheep, rather we have bought rams at high prices and to make more money, whilst smoking our pipes and laying all day long on our 'catres' at our estancia houses, our mud 'puestos,' our tumble-down 'corrales.' As for our cattle we are groping our way in the dark, with fat "novillos" breaking through the wire-fences to get to a market that no longer exists. We are refining the 'rodeos,' fine bulls, fine blood, pretty much the same as 30 years ago, when we began refining the sheep—but all this refining business is not industry, is not enterprize, and is but a simple good-for-nothing sort of go-aheadism peculiar to the Plate, where improvements that can be made by paper dollars are carried out—improvements by art, by intelligence, by the strong brawny arm of labour are rarely seen in the Plate. Show us the man who grows 'alfalfa,' makes haycocks, and fattens at his farm 50 "novillos" a year for the market, and to our view that man is worth more to this country than the noodles who have credits at the banks, own 10,000 head of cattle, "quien sabe" how many leagues of land and some unknown quantity of sheep.

We write of course of a class and not of individuals. There are we know some men and true who are up to the mark, but this frozen mutton theme brings the whole class of estancieros and sheepfarmers to the bar of public opinion. What have they done to foment this trade? What are they prepared to do? Even in the B. Oriental the estancieros and saladeristas have more go in them, and when the niggers refused charque in bulks like old boots in a 'vasura' cart, they set to and baled it; but here in sweet Buenos Aires even this effort is too much for us.

Let us hope that an honest expression of opinion on this subject will be read in a proper light, and that these estancieros and sheepfarmers will raise their heads over their fandubay posts and mud puestos; no class in this country could be more powerful than the estanciero and sheepfarmer, and yet no class represents less. Now is their time to come forward and help a young trade which is the very offshoot of their business, if indeed growing sheep and cattle can be called in Buenos Aires a business. We say no, and we ourself belong to the gremio which we impeach, but we rock the cradle of the infant mutton trade with one hope, and that is that new men and new times are at hand, and if we fail to export frozen mutton to London through the apathy of our farmers and estancieros, at least let us hope that we shall be more successful when we begin exporting live noodles from our camps.

MR. OLIVERA'S TRAVELS.

The fourth volume of these most interesting travels is just published, and this concludes this most useful work, which we recommend to the study and attention of all our readers.

We have on frequent occasions given our readers extracts from the volumes as they came out, and, in fact, our chief regret is, that a book so highly useful and instructive for our countrymen in the camp is not published in English, as Mr. Olivera is a practical estanciero who visited Europe for the express purpose of gathering the very best information and experiences about sheep, cattle-breeding and farming in general; and, to our view, the Government ought to scatter this work broadcast through the camp, as its pages are filled with instruction for all. The talented author, in his travels, visited the best stock-raising establishments in Europe, and had the great privilege to mix with some of the most representative men of the day. We consider it a loss to the country that Mr. Olivera is not in Congress, as a man of such good position, great observation and splendid experience is needed in the Legislature of his country.

We commend these Travels to all our subscribers, but particularly to those who reside in the camp and can read Spanish. English and Irish estancieros will find it one of the most instructive and agreeable books they can place in the hands of their children, and the book should be on the table of every estanciero in the camp who lifts his head over his corral gate. We hope, at our leisure, to give some further extracts from the volume just out, as it abounds in useful, practical information, and views that show the enlightened character of the talented and versatile author.

The extension works of the Central North and Andine Railways are progressing rapidly, and the latter line is now near Mendoza. The branch from Recreo to Chumbicha, in Rioja, has been commenced. A contract has been signed to extend the Campana Railway to Rosario. The Branch of the Western Railway from Pergamino to San Nicolas has been opened to traffic. The Southern Railway Extension to Bahia Blanca, on the Atlantic, will soon be opened.

The Department has received tenders for a telegraphic line from Esperanza Colony through Cavour, Humboldt, Colonia Nueva, Santa Maria, Pilar and Aurelia to Susana. All these colonies are in Santa Fe.

Shortly a telegraph line will be established from the Cañada de Gomez Station on the Central Argentine Railway to Venado Tuerto, passing through Arteaga, San José de la Esquina, Irigondo, Toscana, San Urbano and Melincue.

Government has approved proposals for telegraph lines from Jujuy to Oran (Salta); from Santa to Andagala (Catamarca) and from Cobos to Campo Santo (Salta).

Within a few months we shall be in telegraphic communication with Paraguay, and the National Government has agreed to pay the cost of a line to unite the two countries. The line being constructed in Bolivia, under the agreement with our Government, has already reached Potosi, and will soon be at Chuquisaca.

The National Engineers, under the Act of 24th of October of last year, have called for tenders to sink "pozos semi-surgentes" in the provinces of Rioja and Catamarca, those required at the railway stations, and four in each of the Provinces of Cordoba, San Luis, Santiago del Estero, Mendoza and San Juan.

Next month, on 23rd, the tenders for building a bridge, wharf, embankments and Custom House at Concepcion del Uruguay (Entre Rios) will be opened in the Interior Department, and a bridge over the river Gualeguay will shortly be commenced.

The Engineers' Department's plans for a stone dike to prevent the overflowing of the Arroyo Quilino (Cordoba) and use it for irrigation, the supply of the town, and the Central Argentine Railway, have been approved.

The Government has determined the attributes and responsibilities of the Commissaries of the Colonies authorised by the 24th October last. These colonies are eight in number—six in the South of the Republic and two in the Chaco.

The Executive has signed a contract with Don Ventura Oreiro for steam communication between the Capital and States Island, eight round trips per annum—six to the island named and two to Santa Cruz. Amongst other things, the contractor is bound to call at three intermediate ports to be named, or changed, by Government, provided they be accessible in the opinion of experts.

The Committee named to collect exhibits for the Bremen Exhibition fulfil their task satisfactorily.

CHILE AND THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

A SOUTH AMERICAN DIPLOMATIST ARRAIGNS THE UNITED STATES.

New York, Jan. 7, 1884.

To the Editor of the Herald:—

You have, during the progress of the war on the South Pacific coast, given your readers, through editorials and your able correspondents, some remarkable word painting of that extraordinary drama, and many and varied insights into our own and South American diplomacy. Among the episodes at the outset of that war was the unpardonable publication by the Department of State of the Christiancy photograph of Peruvian character. As a pendant to that I send you a correspondence which recent mails have brought from South America.

In a volume recently published by our Department of State, entitled "Reports on the Commerce of the World and the Share of the United States Therein," Mr. Frelinghuysen was pleased to say:—

The official commercial statistics of Chile compare favorably, in point of clearness, comprehensiveness and data, with those of the United States, England and France.  The direct application of practical business principles to national and international questions, which distinguishes Chilian official reports from those of many of the other South American countries, is indicative of a spirit of progress which is destined to place Chile, as a commercial and industrial centre, in the very front of South American nations.

There has long been a decided rivalry, not to draw the point too finely, between Chile and the Argentine Republic, and Señor Don Luis L. Dominguez, representative in this country of the latter, could not brook this eulogy of the Pacific Republic, and in the following letter, which has been published by his government—and of which I send you a translation—that diplomatist vents his displeasure. So long as this despatch was a simple communication to his government from its Minister we had no concern with it, but once published in the official gazette of Buenos Aires it receives the indorsement of the government and becomes a fit subject for criticism. We should not have anything to do with the South American quarrels, but when the whole people of the United States—their government, statesmen and officials—are arraigned for ignorance of Spanish American affairs it may be just as well to show that such ignorance is not owing to a want of reading South American papers:—

LEGATION OF THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC,
New York, June 26, 1883.

Mr. Minister—Since my arrival in this country I have had many opportunities for observing how little and how badly ours is known here, not only by the general public but by commercial classes and by the government itself. At first view, and particularly when we notice the part the United States take in the more notable occurences on the South American republics, it would seem that they follow with a careful eye everything that happens in them all; otherwise it is difficult to understand the jealousy and mistrust with which they regard European interference in those States, or why they desire for themselves an undue degree of influence in their internal economy. A more careful examination, however, shows that the views of those in charge of public affairs in this country hardly reached beyond the Antilles and the Isthmus of Panama; that they see badly and judge wrongly of what passes on the Pacific coast and in Brazil, and that as regards the republics of the La Plata they are almost ignorant and seemingly wish to remain so. The chief causes of this are the frequent changes in office here and the absolute want of statesmanship of men who, while absorbed in their own domestic politics, have nevertheless time to study the relations of this country with the rest of the world.

Doubtless it is generally known here that there is an Argentine Republic which is making great strides in the world; but all that personifies that Republic and its condition to their mind is a confused mass of facts concerning the régime of Rosas, the blockade and the civil war, cattle raising and the gauchos. If there be any who desire any greater knowledge of the country they look for books which they do not find, or are satisfied with Mrs. Brassey's nonsense, which English readers consider the acme of truth concerning us, or with such other books written by authors who, like her, having passed four days in the country, become the echo of follies and false judgments concerning us. When still further knowledge is desired there are always about Washington diplomats or officers of the navy who have known us at our worst and who have stored away in their enfeebled brains only some act of whilom barbarity, vulgar manners or customs now forgotten. For my part I do all I can to correct erroneous impressions and to furnish to those who desire it such information as I can.

With this object in view it seemed to me proper to address to the Secretary of State of the United States the accompanying despatch, in which I show to His Excellency that he has fallen into error, through want of data, when in an official paper he represents us as inferior to Chile in the matter of public administration, and chiefly in the comparison he makes regarding the commercial importance of the two countries. I show him in that despatch and with the statistics of our own country, Chile and the United States, that our commerce is greater than that of Chile, and that the commerce with the United States is more extensive than that of Chile. I had not transmitted this despatch sooner to him as I wished to accompany it with the foreign commercial statistics of the Republic, which, in my note of March 20, I desired Your Excellency to send me. So soon as I received them I hastened to fulfil the desire I have had, ever since reading the volume from the State Department, of correcting, with manifest proof, unfavorable and commonly expressed assertions which tend to rank us lower among the nations of this continent than we deserve. I trust that a perusal of His Excellency's last message, remarkable among our State papers for its seriousness of expression and the important facts of which it treats, will add much to this result. I have the honor, &c.

Luis L. Domingues.

To His Excellency Dr. V. de la Plaza, Minister of Foreign Relations.

Now, I happen to have before me an editorial of the Nacion, of Buenos Aires, of August last, which, notwithstanding the tension of feeling between the Argentine Republic and Chile, is one long eulogy of the latter and singularly corroborative of Mr. Frelinghuysen's estimate. Indeed, it goes far beyond that. A few extracts, and those taken at random, will suffice:—

The commercial movement of Chile in 1882 was as follows:—Imports, $53,5000,000; exports, $71,300,000. Ours for the same period was:—Imports $59,200,0000, and exports, $58,500,000. It thus appears that we have imported about $6,000,000 more and exported $13,000,000 less than Chile. Besides, Chile's exports are chiefly made of mining and agricultural products, the one amounting to $56,000,000 and the other to nearly $12,000,000, which evidences the extraordinary development of these industries—in their infancy with us—in that Republic.

After eulogizing the financiail condition and prospects of Chile and contrasting them with those of the Argentine Republic, the article continues:—

Can we present such facts as these? The credit of Chile, notwithstanding the war in which she has been and is engaged, has not suffered and far in advance of ours. It is that there is administrative ability and a serious system of government, while with us there is no method in our financial department. Our statesmen evince their want of the necessary preparation for the management of public affairs, and rather than study, think over or follow out a well digested plan, they trust to the inspiration of the moment, which brings failure. In a word, instead of economizing we are spendthrifts instead of keeping within our income we exceed it, looking abroad for heavy loans on onerous terms, and, iustead of organizing and consolidating our credit through an upright and competent administration, we depreciate it through repeated emisions of government bonds used only for showy and unproductive purposes. This is not the way to govern a nation. Carelessness in the direction of public affairs and the absence of any definite plan must necessarily lead to the frittering away of our resources and finally to bankruptcy, which we will soon reach if we continue in this craze of oppressive foreign loans, which put in jeopardy the present and future welfare of the country.

The editorial concludes with this pithy remark:—

In view of all these facts let us hope that our statesmen may not forget the example Chile offers them of a stable government and a sound administration.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

ANOTHER ABSCONDER

FROZEN MEAT.

Feb. 1st, 1884.

To business men, the most interesting item of home news is the failure of Messrs. P. W. Thomas, Sons & Co., of 50 Threadneedle Street, Stockbrokers, which was announced yesterday. The liabilities are at present estimated at £800,000. But the interest of the failure is not in the amount, but in the similarity of the circumstances to those existing in the failure of Messrs. Turton, and in the abstraction of bank securities, recalling the Warden episode. The head of the firm in question, Mr. William Evan Blakeway, has disappeared. He seems to have been engaged in colossal speculations unknown to his junior partner, Mr. Percy Thomas. The firm had been in existence for upwards of a century and was in very good repute. It appears that when Mr. Blakeway succeeded to this old established brokers business, it had excellent connections amongst West of England banking firms. These connections were obtained partly through the relations of the firm with the now extinct banking house of Willis Percival and Co., of Lombard Street. Instead of being satisfied with this business, the firm took to speculation on its own account, with the result that it has lost upwards of £800,000 during the past few years. As much as £300,000 of this was, it is reported, paid away as 'differences' in the American market alone in the course of 1883. Such an enormous deficiency could not be met out of the means of the firm, and, consequently, the securities of its clients have, it is believed, been misappropriated on all hands. The widow of a former partner has, we understand, had about £200,000 of her securities abstracted, and more than one country bank has suffered to considerable amounts. It is also said that money has been raised on forged transfers of stocks, and just before the collapse became known stocks were appropiated that belonged to other members of the Stock-Exchange, it is reported, one country bank. Various stories are in circulation regarding modes in which advances have been obtained in the name of the firm by the missing partner. It is stated that the confidence placed in the firm by the country bank already alluded to was complete. It appears that the London agent of the bank kept a box in which the firm deposited securities for money advanced to them, and to which they were allowed access from time to time in order that they might change these documents for others as their business required.

The Globe says:—

"It is openly stated that an investigation into the contents of the box show that the greater part of the securities have disappeared, and the question arises whether the bank which had the custody of the box is responsible for the safe keeping of the securities on behalf of the country bank. It is well known that the business in connection with Stock-Exchange settlements could not be got through unless the banks allowed their customers access to those boxes which contain the securities against which the bank is under advance; but is it not the duty of every bank to make arrangements that when securities are changed there shall be some responsible person present to see that the equivalent of what is taken is put back in the box, and that no abstraction of securities is possible when additions are being ostensibly made to them, whether as 'cover' for a fresh advance or, as must have happened frequently of late in the case of Messrs. Thomas, in order to keep up margins which have run off? The failure certainly helps, as did the case of George Warden, to clear up the mystery of where the money has lately come from to settle the enormous 'differences' which have for some time past been paid on the Stock-Exchange."

It is also said that money has been raised on forged transfers of stocks, and just before the collapse became known stocks were appropriated that belonged to other members of the Stock-Exchange. In addition to the country banks, more than one London banker will lose money; and one insurance company seems to have surrendered securities in the ordinary way of business for a cheque which has been dishonoured.

This affair had a very bad effect on the Stock-Exchange yesterday, but to-day there is a general recovery.

Another important question for your clients is the success that may or may not attend the two cargoes of frozen meat from the River Plate. The Loch Ard has arrived and is discharging, and the mutton, frozen by Bell and Coleman's process, has been put into the market. I went through Smithfield yesterday in the hopes of seeing the meat, but I could get no specific information, and I prefer to leave the mutton until next mail, as I shall have no time this afternoon to make proper inquiries in the city. I heard in Smithfield that carcases had been sold at 4d. per lb., and that some offered for sale weighed no more than 40 lbs. These may have been from New Zealand; although the average weight of sheep from that quarter is 70 lbs., and anything much less will not answer in this market where legs of mutton weighing only 5 lbs., are not appreciated. I understand that the Meath which should be here to-day from Antwerp, brings carcases from the establishment at Campana, which weigh upwards of 80 lbs. You will, of course, have seen the letter published in the Economist of last week, from its correspondent in New Zealand, in which the writer looks forward to an annual export of one million of carcases, and that the price of sheep was already rising. The breed, he thinks, most suited to the London markets is the half-bred merino that is crossed with the Lincoln. It gives good meat and a wool of longer staple. All that we found out at the exhibition of wools at the Crystal Palace in 1880, and then I told you that the Australians, whilst growing a fine wool, were going in for weight and length of staple. The whole question of meat supply from the River Plate is likely to be discussed in the London newspapers, when the results of the shipments per Meath and Loch Ard are ascertained.

At an extraordinary general meeting of the New Zealand Trust and Loan Company—paying dividends at the rate of 20 per cent per annum—the Chairman the day before yesterday referred with pleasure to the new opening to the trade of New Zealand afforded by the export of frozen meat. He said that within the last 12 months 15 or 16 steamers had been put on in that trade! You must look alive and keep a sharp watch on your native statesmen, who have old-fashioned views in regard to patentes and monopolios.

If there is any good in a man it is bound to come out; but it should not come out all at once and leave the man empty.

LATEST FROM BRAZIL.

The mortuary returns show no increase in yellow fever, whose mortality has ranged during the week between two and six per diem. Interment at the cemetery of the Jurujuba Hospital having been forbidden, the mortality returns will in futnre include the mortality of that maritime hospital, which receives yellow fever patients from Rio and the shipping.

In regard to the sale of the monastic realty, excepting convents and benevolent institutions, which a law of 1870 ordered to be effected within ten years and the proceeds invested in inalienable Government stock, it is stated that the monastic orders have refused to give the lists called for by the Government commission appointed to enrol the properties and sell them, and have resolved to test in the court, the legality of the enforcement of the law fourteen years after its enaction, and of the extraordinary powers, excluding jurisdiction of the ordinary courts, which the Government has conferred on the commission. Of course, the appeal to the courts is outside of the general denial of the right of civil powers to legislate upon or dispose of realty betonging to "the church."

Over 200 of the colonists of the Aymoré colony created by the Minas and Bahia Railway Company in the Serra dos Aymorés, in lands acquired from the Imperial Government, abandoned their colony at the beginning of February and returned to the port of Caravellas, in consequence, it is alleged, of quarrels with the directors of the colony. Measures were taken to have them cared for and sent back to the colony, and the company sent off from Rio on the 7th, a new director, with instructions to arrange matters with the colonists.

Dr. Theodureto Carlos Faria Souto left in the Companhia Baazileira packet of the 10th, for Manaos, to assume the Presidency of Amazonas, vice Dr. José Lustosa da Cunha Paranaguá, resigned.

According to the latest information received by the Jornal do Commercio, from the Leopoldina railway: upon the main line the section between S. Geraldo and Ponte Nova was being vigorously attacked and the company, in accordance with the decree of January 27th 1883, had just contracted for the section from Ponte Nova to Itabira de Mato Dentro, over 120 kilometers more. On the Alto Muriahé branch, the section from Capivára to S. Francisco da Gloria, 110 kilometers, was in construction, and the section from S. Francisco da Gloria to the valley of the Manhussú, over 100 kilometers additional, would have soon to be contracted. With the completion of these extensions in hand the Leopoldina railway company's lines in traffic will reach in two years about 700 kilometers, and be second in importance only to the D. Pedro II railway, of which they will be the greatest tributaries.

ENGLISH IMMIGRATION.

THE FORMIGN MINISTER TO MINISTER GARCIA.

Foreign Office,
B. Aires, Feb. 16th, 1884

Mr. Minister

I have read with great pleasure Y. E.'s note of 12th January, in reference to the increasing knowledge of and interest taken in our country in the chief industrial and agricultural centres of the United Kingdom. Your important communication has been published in the leading papers of this city and great praise is showered on Your Legation, for its patriotic and well-sustained propaganda.

In order that Y. E. may advantageously continue to make patent the advantages our country holds forth to the industrious immigrant, and the faculties offered by Government for the acquisition of landed property, I send you by post the latest laws in reference to the renting of National lands, as also the Notice from the Central Land and Colonies Office, offering lots for sale in different parts of the Republic, on most advantageous terms. The translation and circulation of these papers in those places where the emigrating tendency referred to in your note is observable, would, I think, be most favourable for our country, and attract to it some of the superabundant labouring population of England.

Congratulating you on the result already obtained.

I salute you, etc.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

There was a general jubilant cheer for the Clerk of the Weather yesterday about early breakfast hour, when the buckets came down in truly glorious style, flooding the streets in three minutes and a-half, and making everybody happy, except the cats. The long, hot summer is at last drawing to a close. The rain has come just in the nick of time to save the camp; another three weeks' drought, and it would have been a case of "ruina azul."

The Daily Telegraph says that the French were driven back with great loss in an attempt to take Bacninh, and that the War-Office in Paris coolly suppressed the unwelcome despatch—an old Gallic device in cases of reverse. The French War Minister, however, denies the news, and says the affair was only a reconnoissance, and the loss to the French small. On which side lies the truth, and on which the lie. Things in Tonquin are not what they seem.

Argentina, or "The Argentine," as they say in London, has now got into the illustrated papers there. The Graphic of February 2nd has two views of this country—one, "The Ruins of Mendoza," and the other, "The Mercado Bridge." Nothing better than well-selected illustrations for helping to make a country known to the world at large. The present generation has learned more geography from wars and illustrated newspapers than ever it learned at school.

The Montevidean papers say that the Carnival there was even more melancholy, slow and seedy than here.

We read in the Liverpool papers that Mr. Wm. B. Barbour, formerly head of the opulent firm of Barbour, Barclay and Co., is a candidate to represent Paisley in Parliament, vice Mr. Holms, who has retired. Mr. Barbour, of course, joins the ranks of intellectual England, and promises to steadily support the Grand Old Man. We wish him every success.

As our London correspondent says, we must look pretty considerably alive here, if we mean to compete with Australia in the frozen meat line, although we have all the advantages in our favour. Scarcely a week elapses now that a frozen meat ocean flyer from New Zealand does not call at Rio on her way home. Last week the "Victory" put in there for coal: she had 8,000 sheep and 300 steers frozen and cut up ready for sale the moment she reaches London.

Our Belgian colleague, La Patriote, refers in complimentary terms to the Buenos Aires Stud Farm, and the fact that nearly the whole "personnel" is composed of Belgians—Messrs. Andrè, Tembeur, Gillet, Bernier and many others.

As the repairs of St. John's Church are not yet concluded, service will be held to-morow in the School-room.

There is rather brisk news from the West Coast. No fewer than eight European Powers, led by France and Italy, have protested against the terms of peace forced on Peru by Chile, unless they get some guarantee for the Foreign Debt of Peru, in plrce of the guano islands and territories seized by Chile, and which were formerly guarantees for the Debt. No doubt Chile will give this guarantee, as she is bound to do; and there is no occasiou for the worn-out bosh about what the United States will do in the emergency. There is no emergency, and the United States will do nothing. Neither will the eyes of the whole world be turned on the Pacific Coast, any more than they were while Chile was thrashing Peru into a cocked hat. The world's eyes are strained elsewhere just now. The peace negotiations between Chile and Bolivia have been broden off, and this is unpleasant ——for Bolivia.

The Rev. R. Allen (English Chaplain at Bahia Blanca) will, D.V., hold Divine Service at Mr. W. A. Grant's estancia, Pinedo, on Sunday March 9th.

Another Lottery has appeared "The Buenos Aires." It is about time that something should be done to stop this avalanche of Lotteries. The result will be the ruin of the Capital Lottery, if vigorous measures be not at once adopted.

Dr. Derqui, Governor of Corrientes, had a relapse yesterday, and the doctors were hastily summoned to his bedside.

The Park Ranger at Palermo has asked leave to have all the waste ground in the Park cultivated and put under trees and flowers, to make it look decent. We second this motion. The Park is, after all, ineffably scrubby and wants a deal of money spent on it to bring it up to the mark.

The expedition to the South has been again postponed. Our colleague La Prensa surmises that it is due to desire on the part of the ship's company to see Carnival properly interred. After this we are afraid there will be no other decent excuse for further postponement.

More tramways, and the more the better. Competition is the only thing to bring down fares. The new scheme is proposed by Manuel de la Serna y Cia, and his proposal includes the construction of first and second-class coaches for the conveyance of passengers, goods of every kind, provisions, merchandise, etc. He asks for permit for two lines and side lines, etc., and offers to carry the "basura" of the city at a reduction of 30 o/o on present prices, with special cars for the service. In case his scheme be accepted, he engages to have the whole thing going in three years.

The new branch line from La Plata to Temperley is about to be inaugurated. Already the Governor has made several trips over this track, and a great quantity of materials for the works in the new Capital have also found their way in along it.

Two pick-pockets managed to steal an English lady's purse in a daring manner during Carnival. She was standing at the corner of Calles Chacabuco and Comercio waiting for a tramway, and the two rascals pretended to be enjoying Carnival by throwing flour at each other. Suddenly one of them threw a handful of flour into her eyes, snatched her purse, and bolted, followed by his accomplice. The poor lady shouted for help, but the "gallo policial" did not appear in time to get even a glimpse of the runaways. Their victim deplored her loss so bitterly that the sum in the stolen purse must have been important for her.

Governor Roach is off again to La Plata for 20 days, to see after the wooden houses and things in general. Many of the Provincial Government departments will be moved this month to La Plata. What a place to pass the winter in!

M. Massenet has got together a splendid operatic company of 25 artists who were to have left for the Plate on Feb. 25th.

Number 3891 won the big prize of 10,000 Nats. in yesterday's Lottery.

"What would our wives say if they knew where we are?" said the captain of a shooner, when they were beating about in a thick fog, fearful of going ashore. "Humph, I shouldn't mind that," replied the mate, "if we only knew where were we ourselves."

Governor-elect, D'Amico, was entertained at a banquet in the Coliseum last night by his political admirers. The Vice-Governor elect was also present. The 'menu' was splendid, although it was the first Friday in Lent.

"The Military Memoirs of General Sarmiento" are now on sale. This book ought to be as good reading as Mark Twain. We'll send a copy to Punch and the "Dook."

The portraits of Senators Dillon and Andrade, in Quesnel's shop in Calle Florida are by a young man from the country (Baradero) who wants the Provincial Government to pay for a trip to Europe for him, of course to perfect his studies. It is hard to count all the Rubenses and Morillos from this country who are now studying in Europe, and now here's another.

Never doubt a musician's word when he says he cannot play. Ten chances to one he cannot.

CARNIVAL.

Buenos Aires, Feb. 26th.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Sir,

In your editorial on Carnival, of which I heartily approve, I notice the phrase, the humanising Christian recreations of the Church fetes of Carnival. What, Mr. Editor, is the meaning of this phrase? Are there any orthodox pastimes, of which the Church approves, for Carnival? Is not the existence of this wild buffoonery a proof in itself of the negative influence of the Church?

My idea of the meaning of Carnival is (and, if I am wrong, I hope you will correct me) a condescension to human weakness, on the part of the Church, in consideration of the penances to be endured during the season of Lent One might naturally conclude that the feasts originated, not with the Holy Mother Church herself, but with her erring children, as a bit of revenge for the penance which she imposes during that season, and that she has simply allowed it. Then the question arises—How is it that this three days of license does not occur except among the Latin races? We never heard of a Carnival in Ireland, nor yet in Protestant countries, and yet the season of Lent is common to all. Finally, Mr. Editor, would it not be impossible for a people to enjoy this boisterous foolery if they had reached a high intellectual culture? Is it not the triumph of matter over mind rather than the reverse?

I hope you, or some of your readers, will enlighten us on these various points (Dean Dillon, for instance), and please, Mr. Editor, not to throw my communication into your waste-paper basket and leave me in darkness.

Yours truly,

Spectator.

For many years the principal dealers both in town and camp, have sold none but the LA PATRIA brand, an eloquent proof of the satisfaction it gives to their customers. The annoyance and inconvenience which they formally suffered, when they bought other teas (sometimes of good quality and sometimes totally useless) is thus done away with.

A package of "PATRIA" Tea although it is sold for 48 lbs contains 50 lbs. net of tea.

Protection against Fraud

See that the box has not been opened. If the lead has been cut it is an almost certain proof that it does not contain the genuine article. Those who fill with inferior tea the empty boxes bearing our brands, generally do it at the bottom, leaving the lid and top lead intact, so as the more readily to deceive purchasers.

Ask for PATRIA tea and see that you get the genuine article.

ON 'CHANGE.

February 29th, 1884

Cedulas A	100
Cedulas E	87½
Cedulas F	84½
National Bank Shares....	130½

This being the last day of the month, there was a heavy business enough transacted, the vencimientos in shares being very large. The Bolsa liquidator marked as follows:—

Vencimientos, shares ... 58,100; price, 130
" Cedulas E 4,276,200; price, 87
" Cedulas F 175,000

The business on 'Change formed a surprise for many, since money for all who were willing to pay for it was very abundant, and both shares and Cedulas were carried over with ease. It may interest many of our readers to glance at the price of these stocks at the end of February for the last two years. Although, if we except exchange, we cannot see that much is to be derived from the study of those restrospective figures:—

	Feb 1882	Feb. 1883
National Bank Shares	132½	105½
Cedulas E	82	85
Cedulas A	99½	100½
Exchange	49½	49½

Considering the great increase of capital of the National Bank since 1882, it will be seen how much those shares have grown in value within the last two years. Cedulas have increased in price with their emission, but exchange, it will be noted with much concern, is now for the last two years with a persistent downward tendency, spite of the very large amounts of fresh capital that have come into the country.

Nothing after all can be more illusory than the monster purchases or sales of stocks on 'Change; one party who kept an exact list of the various transactions of certain well-known speculators was completely at fault, as to the state of the market, and the great "descubierto", which according to his tablets existed, vanished into thin air; we note the matter as a caution against placing too much faith in sales of shares or Cedulas by the thousand or hundred thousand.

Cedulas—
For cash A 27,000 at 100½-100
For cash E 585,000 at 86½-87-½-87
For March 31st E 540,000 at 87½-87-½-½-½ to 87½-½-½-½
For cash F 25,000 at 84½-⅝
Sales, 1,187,000
Vencimientos, Series E $f.4,276,200.
Liquidation, Series E, 87
Vencimientos, Series F $f.175,000.
National Bank Shares—
For cash 6,800 at 129½-½-130-129½-½-½ to 129½-½-130-½-½-½-½-½
For March 31st 1,150 at 126-126½-½-½-½-½
Sales, 7,950
Vencimientos, 68,190
Liquidation, 130

The fresh supply of money in the market is attributed to the large amount of exchange in these days.

Dr. Leeson leaves on Wednesday for Europe; his many friends hope to see him soon back again in the R. Plate.

Freights rule very low, owing to the large number of steamers in port; fs.16 for bales at this time of the year is indeed low.

Telegrams from London, dated 27th Feb., give Hard Dollars at 88½, ex coupon, and Unified Uruguays at 52½-53.

We know not on what authority, but there was a rumour on change this afternoon to the effect that the Governor of the Province, Dr. Rocha, is about to resign; we suppose it is only a mere Bolsa rumour.

President Roca is expected in town next week from Cordoba.

At a small land sale in the Provincial Land Office yesterday about half a square league was sold at the high figure of $300 $/c per hectare; the land is in the far South.

Mr. José F. Herrera has been named Syndic of the Lamothe concurso.

We hear of very large wheat exports from Santa Fé, 14 foreign vessels loading wheat cargoes at Santo Tomé.

Havas telegrams this evening announce the complete defeat of the Mahdi's army in the Soudan by the British troops. Had they been Egyptian troops it is possible the result would have been otherwise. The Soudan difficulty will soon be over.

To-morrow the dividend on the National Bank Shares will be payable; this will throw a fair amount of fresh money on the market.

Our London correspondent writes us as follows by last mail:—

"You may perhaps have heard that Mr. Weldon has retired from the service of the London and River Plate Bank. It is also rumoured that Mr. George W. Drabble will resign the chairmanship, and that he will be succeeded by Mr. Richardson better known in Egyptian than in River Plate circles. As this is an early closing mail I must leave the evening's news such as it is to your perusal in tomorrow's papers from Liverpool."

What was most remarkable in the market to-day was the large amounts of money that came out, when yesterday not a dollar was to be seen anywhere. Millions and millions were paid away to-day, and, strange to say, more in bank notes than in cheques. We note that many parties who brought ready money on the Bolsa, intending either to employ it in purchasing cheap at the auction or in passing stocks over for next month at 2 difference, had to accept 1½ or take the money back to the banks.

The sales at afterhours in National Bank Shares showed sharp fluctuation. Prices at three o'clock tumbled to 128½, when about 1,000 sold; subsequently the market stiffened and closed firm as a rock at 130 buyers, the Share King having entered and bought freely. There was a small auction for account of the liquidator, 10,000 Cedulas E, bought at 87½, and this closed this heavy day's business. We heard of no defaults; everything met and covered.

Exchange was freely offered in the morning and done at the following rates:—

On Paris direct, 4.01
France, payable at Paris, 5.02
Antwerp, 5.03.
London, 47 9/16-5/8
Hamburg, 4.05 marks banco.

It is said that all the leading export houses are now buying wool and hence the free supply of bills, but a French exchange broker tells us that, strange to say, the bills vanish when ever be the taker, and bills offered in the morning are all taken up before night.

Eighty two Italian Bank shares sold to-day at 144, which with the 6 per cent. dividend, just paid, brings the shares out at 150. Another lot, 18 shares, sold at same price.

From the Plaza Once de Setiembre we have the following:—

54 waggons arrived with produce.
The arrivals were:—

6,000 @ of wool
1,519 bags of wheat
220 bags of maize
214 bales of hay

and much other produce.

No variation in prices of produce in general.

The sales were:—

EDITOR'S TABLE

Old Cordoba is the only place in the whole River Plate where Carnival was jolly. The reports faom the City of Doctors say that Carnival was tip-top there—Corso, balls, theatres, everything splendid. This shows how much behind Buenos Aires the provinces are-Cordoba is taking up the Saturnalia when Buenos Aires is giving it up in disgust.

A bobbezy has been raised by the neighbours in Calles Chile, Independencia and Santiago del Estero, near the new Lacroze Tram Station. They want it to be shut up 'instanter,' as they are all half dead from the awful smell the new stables have created. If Lacroze be forced to close this station, he will have to raise his fares again to 8 cents, and then there will be another row.

A London colleague says:—

It has now been finally settled that her Majesty will be present at the marriage of her grand and god daughter, Princess Victoria of Hesse, eldest daughter of the late Princess Alice. The Queen will leave Windsor for her villa at Baden-Baden about the third week in March, and will go to Darmstadt on the 15th April, the day fixed for the wedding, returning in the afternoon to Baden-Baden. Among other Royal guests who will be present at the nuptiais are the Prince and Princess of Wales, the German Crown Prince and Princess, the Duke and Duchess of Albany, and the Duke of Cambridge.

There was a brisk mad-dog hunt at the Boca on Thursday. Nobody hurt. The quarry ran into a vessel alongside the quay, where his brush was taken and presented to the 'vigilante' who was first in.

The men rescued from the boat of the Strathairn have now almost recovered. The boat was sent on shore for provisions and on the way back the compassed in a squall. The second mate and another seaman were drowned, and the others had not strength to peak when they were rescued.

"Now children," she continued, "what is the meal you eat in the morning called?" "Oatmeal," promptly replied a member of the class.

"And what is this animal called?" asked the teacher of the class in natural history, as he pointed to the picture of a sloth. And the class all shouted at once, "A messenger boy!"
